He only lived 16 days being born March 23, 1864, and died April 2nd." Mother and babe were buried in the same grave in what is called the "Upper Cemetery." This was a great sorrow for Ira, as well as other members in the small community, as gracious Julia Jemeyma was beloved by all who knew her.

she never failed to raise her voice and thank her Heavenly Father for His mercy and blessings to her family. The last 10 years of her life she was miserable with rheumatism, which kept her from doing the things she would have liked to have done. One time she was burning the trash and the wind carried the sparks to the pig pen, which was badly damaged, but she was able to save the pigs. In 1926 they had another fire that destroyed the straw stack, ear shed and some pigpens, and they were very fortunate in extinguishing it without further damage.

She passed away on April 29, 1927 at the age of 76, and has five living children, 17 grandchildren, and 34 great grandchildren, who honor her memory and are thankful that she died strong in the faith.
